

Krischa Winright, Chief Information Officer of Priority Health and Spectrum Health Vice President - Information Services, is also a member of the Michigan Health Information Network Shared Services Board. She manages a direct staff of 195+ FTEs and contractors in the areas of: Web and Application Development, Portfolio Management, Enterprise Business Services, Application Architecture, Informatics and Analytics, Information Security. She also leads technology innovation to support the consumer experience.

Winright holds a BA in Computer Science and Mathematics – a dual degree from Calvin College and Cornerstone University, graduating Magna Cum Laude. Not only is Krischa an excellent leader and communicator, she is a conceptual thinker and visionary, possessing strong analytical & technical design skills. She is married and a mother of three.

(Priority Health is an award-winning, non-profit health plan offering a broad portfolio of group and individual products including Medicare and Medicaid plans. It offers coverage to more than 12,000 employers in the state of Michigan servicing more than 600,000 members statewide. It is rated among the best health plans in the nation by the National Committee for Quality Assurance. Its parent company, Spectrum Health, is a not-for-profit health system in West Michigan offering a full continuum of care through the Spectrum Health Hospital Group, comprised of nine hospitals, a state of the art children's hospital, the Spectrum Health Medical Group and West Michigan Heart physician groups and Priority Health. It is West Michigan's largest employer with more than 18,000 employees. The organization provided over $176.5 million in community benefit during 2011.)